Expert Strategies For Admission

ADVISING FOR ALL GRADE LEVELS:

College
Graduate School
Boarding School
K-12 Placement

With our Comprehensive College Plan, students in middle school and high school will receive a personal advisor who will provide ongoing guidance and support. This service is tailored to meet the needs of each student, at any stage of the admissions process.

MIDDLE SCHOOL, FRESHMAN & SOPHOMORE YEAR

Get started early to successfully maximize your student's high school experience. To put middle school students as well as freshmen and sophomores in the best position for college admissions, we:

- Create a detailed plan for coursework, testing, and extracurricular activities
- Broaden and deepen extracurricular and academic interests by suggesting novel ways to capitalize on them
- Recommend summer activities, internship opportunities, and scholarship options, and review applications and resumes
- Plan college tours and visits, including preparing for college interviews
- Keep students organized and aware of opportunities and deadlines

JUNIOR YEAR

Junior year is the last chance students have to make meaningful changes that will influence their overall admission profile. During junior year, we:

- Provide an academic assessment after evaluating the student's transcript
- Formulate a plan to maintain the student's high school performance or improve it
- Evaluate and recommend extracurricular and summer activities, as well as internship and scholarship opportunities
- Research appropriate colleges and develop a balanced list of colleges based on a student's needs and desires
- Plan for and prioritize college visits, including preparing for college interviews
- Establish a standardized testing schedule
- Recommend test preparation strategies and-or classes, as needed
- Review teacher/ coach/ school guidance counselor relationships for letters of recommendation
- Prepare students for interviews, simulate the admissions interview process, and provide constructive feedback
- Keep students organized and aware of opportunities and deadlines

SENIOR YEAR

During the final stage of the college admissions process, we:

- Review, evaluate, and finalize a balanced list of colleges based on the student's needs and desires
- Prepare students for college interviews, college fairs, and meetings with admissions officers
- Brainstorm, review, edit and provide feedback on essays and personal statements
- Recommend and develop a plan for any remaining standardized testing needed
- Explore financial aid and scholarship options – all ICC students receive monthly scholarship listings
- Evaluate offers of admission as well as develop a strategy for waitlist and deferral decisions
- Provide resources to stay on task, meet deadlines and complete all components of the college application

International College Counselors offers services tailored for:

- Undergraduate students
- Transfer students
- International students
- Students with disabilities
- Graduate students
- Homeschool students
- Student athletes
- Thespians, musicians, and other fine arts students
- Deferred / Waitlisted students
- Boarding school students

Application season came without any stress, because I was organized, had a timetable, and had a strategy that we had thought up together during our numerous meetings.”

– Talya, Honors College at the University of Michigan

Without your help I don't know how I could have ever made it through this process. You encouraged me each step of the way, and in the end, my biggest problem was deciding between MIT, Stanford and Yale!”

– Leonardo, Yale University
